

The crooked sword

How to play:

In each round use dice twice, The first throw is yours, and the second throw belongs to the 'Lightning god'. In each throw ,use the number to select the according numbered item, so in each round you and the 'lightning god' will have his own item, and according to the strength of the items, one of you two will win the round and the other will lose only one of his remaining lives.

Extra Rules:

1. If you managed to win 3 successive rounds ,You get an extra life if your intial life were reduced (e.g. if you were playing hard mode , and you managed to win 3 rounds in a row, and your life counter was 2 out of 3 , you get an extra life ,but if your life counter was 3/3 , you get nothing :))
2. the item numbered '6' ('Dragon') reduces the opponent life by 2 lives, and can't be used in 2 successive rounds per player.(e.g. if you [or the 'lighning god '] got a 6 in a round, the other side losses 2 lives, and in the next round if you were lucky enough to get another 6 , you can't get the 'Dragon' but you get 'poop' instead :())
3. If you managed to hit the same number in 2 successive rounds , you get the 'silver' shield which can protect you from all other attacks, Except for the 'dragon' attack, it reduces the damage recieved from the 'Dragon' to 1 insted of 2.
4. If you managed to hit the same number in 3 successive rounds , you get the 'diamond' shield which can protect you from all other attacks, including the 'dragon' attack.
